(v) in no event shall any Letter of Credit be issued if after such issuance there are more than 20 Letters of Credit then outstanding.

The following additional provisions shall apply to Letters of Credit:

The Company's obligation hereunder applies under any and all circumstances and is irrespective of any setoff, counterclaim, or defense to payment which the Company may have or have had against Barclays; any beneficiary of a Letter of Credit or any other Person, including any defense based upon the occurrence of any draft, demand or certificate or other document presented under a Letter of Credit proving to be forged, fraudulent, invalid or insufficient, the failure of any disbursement under a Letter of Credit to conform to the terms of the applicable Letter of Credit (if, in the Barclays' good faith opinion, such disbursement is determined to be appropriate) or any non-application or misapplication by the beneficiary of the proceeds of such disbursement, or the legality, validity, form, regularity, or enforceability of such Letter of Credit; provided, however, that nothing herein shall adversely affect the right of the Company to commence any proceeding against Barclays for any wrongful disbursement made by Barclays under a Letter of Credit as a result of acts or omissions constituting gross negligence or willful misconduct on the part of Barclays as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final, non-appealable judgment.

(e) The issuance by Barclays of each Letter of Credit shall, in addition to the conditions precedent set forth in Section 8.2, be subject to the conditions precedent that (i) such Letter of Credit shall have a face amount at least equal to $100,000 (or such smaller amount as Barclays may agree) or an integral multiple of $10,000 (or such smaller amount as Barclays may agree) in excess thereof, (ii) such Letter of Credit shall be in such form, contain such terms and support such transactions as shall be satisfactory to Barclays consistent with its then current practices and procedures with respect to letters of credit of the same type (and in any event shall be governed by the International Standby Practices 1998 (ISP98) published by the International Chamber of Commerce), and (iii) the Company shall have executed and delivered such applications, agreements and other instruments relating to such Letter of Credit as Barclays shall have requested consistent with its then current practices and procedures with respect to letters of credit of the same type; provided that in the event of any conflict between any such application, agreement or other instrument and the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement shall control.

(f) The issuance of any modification or supplement to any Letter of Credit hereunder shall be subject to the same conditions applicable under this Section 2.1 to the issuance of new Letters of Credit, and Barclays shall have no obligation to make any such modification or supplement unless the respective

Letter of Credit affected thereby would have complied with such conditions had it originally been issued hereunder in such modified or supplemented form.

(g) The Company shall assume all risks of the acts, omissions, or misuse of any Letter of Credit by the beneficiary thereof. Barclays shall not (except to the extent of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final, non-appealable judgment) be responsible for:

- (i) the form, validity, sufficiency, accuracy, genuineness, or legal effect of any document submitted by any party in connection with the application for, issuance of, or drawing under a Letter of Credit, even if it should in fact prove to be in any or all respects invalid, insufficient, inaccurate, fraudulent, or forged;
- (ii) the form, validity, sufficiency, accuracy, genuineness, or legal effect of any instrument transferring or assigning or purporting to transfer or assign a Letter of Credit or the rights or benefits thereunder or proceeds thereof in whole or in part, which may prove to be invalid or ineffective for any reason;
- (iii) failure of the beneficiary to comply fully with conditions required in order to demand payment under a Letter of Credit;
- (iv) errors, omissions, interruptions, or delays in transmission or delivery of any messages, by mail, cable, telegraph, telex, or otherwise;
- (v) any error, omission, interruption, loss or delay in the transmission or delivery of any draft, notice or other communication under or relating to any Letter of Credit (including any document required in order to make a disbursement thereunder) or of the proceeds thereof;
- (vi) any error in interpretation of technical terms;
- (vii) the performance of any transaction which underlies any Letter of Credit;
- (viii) any act or omission of any Person other than Barclays;
- (ix) loss or destruction of any draft, demand, or document in transit or in the possession of others;
- (x) lack of knowledge of any particular trade usage (other than standard United States and Western European banking usage as used in the normal course of business); or
- (xi) any consequence arising from causes beyond the control of Barclays.

None of the foregoing shall affect, impair, or prevent the vesting of any of the rights or powers granted Barclays hereunder. In furtherance and extension, and not in limitation or derogation, of any of the foregoing, any action taken or omitted to be taken by Barclays in good faith and in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct shall be binding upon the Company and shall not put Barclays under any resulting liability to the Company; provided, however, that nothing herein shall relieve Barclays for any liability for its gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final, non-appealable judgment.

The Company hereby indemnifies and holds harmless Barclays from and against any and all claims and damages, losses, liabilities, costs or expenses that Barclays may incur (or that may be claimed against Barclays by any Person whatsoever) by reason of or in connection with the execution and delivery or transfer of or payment or refusal to pay by Barclays under any Letter of Credit; provided that the Company shall not be required to indemnify for any claims, damages, losses, liabilities, costs or expenses to the extent, but only to the extent, caused by (x) the willful misconduct or gross negligence of Barclays (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final, non-appealable judgment) in determining whether a request presented under any Letter of Credit complied with the terms of such Letter of Credit or (y) Barclays' failure to pay under any Letter of Credit after the presentation to it of a request strictly complying with the terms and conditions of such Letter of Credit. Nothing in this Section 2.1 is intended to limit the other obligations of the Company under this Agreement.

2.2 Certain Conditions. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Barclays shall have no obligation to issue any Letter of Credit if an Event of Default or Unmatured Event of Default exists.

2.3 Security Interests; Collateral. As security for the full and timely payment and performance of all obligations of the Company hereunder, now existing or hereafter arising, the Company has granted to Barclays a valid, binding, enforceable, duly perfected first priority security interest in the Collateral pursuant to the Security Agreement.

2.4 Application of Collateral Account. Promptly after the incurrence of any Reimbursement Obligation, Barclays shall apply (to the extent necessary and available therefor) any and all funds then on deposit in the Collateral Account to the repayment of such Reimbursement Obligation so long as Barclays is not prevented from doing so by operation of law, legal proceeding or otherwise. The Borrower hereby authorizes Barclays to take such action necessary to effect such repayment (including debiting the Control Account and, to the extent necessary, causing the sale or liquidation of investments therein in order to obtain immediately available funds (such sale or liquidation to be consummated on a recognized market or otherwise in a manner consistent with commercially reasonable practices)) and agrees any loss resulting from any such sale or liquidation would be for the sole account of the Borrower.

2.5 Optional Reduction. The Company may, from time to time on any Business Day voluntarily reduce the Commitment; provided, however, that all such reductions shall require at least three Business Days' prior notice to Barclays and be permanent reductions of the Commitment, and any partial reduction of the Commitment shall be in a minimum amount of $2,000,000 and in an integral multiple of $500,000.

2.6 Additional Cash Collateral. To the extent that at any time the aggregate amount of then outstanding Letter of Credit Liabilities exceeds the Commitment in effect at such time (but without altering other terms and limitations provided for elsewhere in this Agreement) or the amount of Collateral in the Collateral Account is not equal to or greater than the aggregate amount of then outstanding Letter of Credit Liabilities, the Company shall immediately deposit with Barclays in the Collateral Account additional Collateral in Dollars and in immediately available funds in an amount such that the amount in the Collateral Account is equal to or greater than 105% of the aggregate amount of then outstanding Letter of Credit Liabilities.

SECTION 3. INTEREST.

3.1 Interest Rate. Subject to the provisions of Section 2.4, the Company promises to pay interest on the unpaid principal amount of all Reimbursement Obligations at the Interest Rate until two days after the date a Demand Notice is received by the Company, and thereafter at the Interest Rate plus 2% per annum. Interest on the Reimbursement Obligations is payable on demand. Interest shall be computed for the actual number of days elapsed on the basis of a year of 365 days.

SECTION 4. FEES.

4.1 Commitment Fee. The Company agrees to pay Barclays a commitment fee on the daily average unused amount of Barclays' Commitment (for which purpose the aggregate amount of any then outstanding Letter of Credit Liabilities shall be a use of the Commitment), for the period from and including the date of this Agreement to but not including the Termination Date, at a rate per annum equal to three-eighths of one percent (0.375%). Accrued commitment fees shall be payable quarterly in arrears on the last Business Day of each March, June, September and December, commencing June 2009 and on the Termination Date. issuance of such Letter of Credit (i) in the case of a Letter of Credit that expires in accordance with its terms, to and including such expiration date and (ii) in the case of a Letter of Credit that is drawn in full or is otherwise terminated other than on the stated expiration date of such Letter of Credit, to but excluding the date such Letter of Credit is drawn in full or is terminated (such fee to be non-refundable, to be paid in arrears on the last Business Day of March, June, September and December, commencing on the date of such drawing in full or termination and to be calculated for any day after giving effect to any payments made under such Letter of Credit on such day). Except as required by applicable law, all payments of principal of, and interest on, the Reimbursement Obligations and all other amounts payable hereunder shall be made free and clear of and without deduction for any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes. If any withholding or deduction from any payment to be made by the Company hereunder is required in respect of any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes pursuant to any applicable law, rule or regulation, then the Company will:

- (a) pay directly to the relevant authority the full amount required to be so withheld or deducted;
- (b) promptly forward to Barclays an official receipt or other documentation reasonably satisfactory to Barclays evidencing such payment to such authority; and
- (c) pay to Barclays such additional amount as is necessary to ensure that the net amount actually received by Barclays will equal the full amount Barclays would have received had no such withholding or deduction been required.

In addition, the Company shall pay any Other Taxes not paid pursuant to the above to the relevant governmental authority in accordance with applicable law.

Moreover, if any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes are directly asserted against Barclays with respect to any payment received by Barclays hereunder, Barclays may pay such Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes and, provided that Barclays provides the Company an official receipt or other documentation reasonably satisfactory to the Company evidencing such payment, the Company will promptly pay such additional amounts (including any penalty, interest or expense) as is necessary in order that the net amount received by Barclays after the payment of such Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes (including any Taxes on such additional amount) shall equal the amount Barclays would have received had such Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes not been asserted.

If the Company fails to pay any Taxes when due to the appropriate taxing authority or fails to remit to Barclays, the required receipts or other required documentary evidence, the Company shall indemnify Barclays for any incremental Taxes, interest or penalties that may become payable by Barclays as a result of any such failure.

On or prior to the Closing Date Barclays shall execute and deliver to the Company United States Internal Revenue Service Form W-8ECI or any successor form thereto establishing that Barclays is exempt from withholding or deduction of Taxes. The Company shall not be required to pay additional amounts to Barclays pursuant to this Section 5.3 to the extent that the obligation to pay such additional amounts would not have arisen but for the failure of Barclays to comply with this paragraph.

5.4 Increased Costs. If by reason of

(a) any change after the Closing Date in applicable law, regulation, rule, decree or regulatory requirement or any change after the Closing Date in the interpretation or application by any judicial or regulatory authority of any law, regulation, rule, decree or regulatory requirement, or

(b) compliance by Barclays with any new or modified (after the Closing Date) direction, request or requirement (whether or not having the force of law) of any governmental or monetary authority, including Regulation D of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve Board:

(i) Barclays shall be subject to any Tax (other than franchise Taxes or Taxes measured by net income or receipts), levy, charge or withholding of any nature or to any variation thereof or to any penalty with respect to the maintenance or fulfillment of its obligations hereunder, whether directly or by such being imposed on or suffered by Barclays;

(ii) any reserve, deposit or similar requirement is or shall be applicable, imposed or modified in respect of any Letter of Credit; or

(iii) there shall be imposed on Barclays any other condition regarding this Agreement or any Letter of Credit; and the result of the foregoing is directly or indirectly to increase the cost to Barclays of issuing, making or maintaining any Letter of Credit, or to reduce any amount receivable in respect thereof by Barclays, then and in any such case Barclays may, at any time after the additional cost is incurred or the amount received is reduced, notify the Company thereof and provide the Company with data and calculations supporting such costs, and the Company shall pay such amounts as Barclays may specify to be necessary to compensate Barclays for such additional cost or reduced receipt within ten (10) Business Days after receiving such notice, together with interest on such amount from the date of receipt of such notice until payment in full thereof at a rate equal at all times to the Interest Rate; provided, however, that Section 5.3, rather than this Section 5.4 shall govern the Company's obligations with respect to Taxes relating to payments by the Company described in the first sentence of Section 5.3. The good faith determination by Barclays of any amount due pursuant to this Section 5.4, as set forth in a statement setting forth the calculation thereof in reasonable detail, shall, in the absence of manifest error, be final and conclusive and binding on all of the parties hereto. In addition to amounts payable as elsewhere provided in this Agreement, the Company hereby agrees to protect, indemnify, pay and save Barclays harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, liabilities, damages, losses, costs, charges and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) which Barclays may incur or be subject to as a consequence, direct or indirect, of

(y) the issuance of the Letters of Credit, other than as a result of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Barclays as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final, non-appealable judgment, or

(z) the failure of Barclays to honor a drawing under any Letter of Credit as a result of any act or omission, whether rightful or wrongful, of any present or future de jure or de facto government or governmental authority.

5.5 Increased Capital Costs. If any change in, or the introduction, adoption, effectiveness, interpretation, reinterpretation or phase-in of, any law or regulation, directive, guideline, decision or request (whether or not having the force of law) of any court, central bank, regulator or other governmental authority causes the amount of capital required or expected to be maintained by Barclays or any Person controlling Barclays attributable to or based upon the Letters of Credit or Commitment hereunder to be increased, and Barclays determines (in its reasonable discretion) that the rate of return on its or such controlling Person's capital as a consequence of its Commitment or issuance of Letters of Credit is reduced to a level below that which Barclays or such controlling Person could have achieved but for the occurrence of any such circumstance, then, in any such case upon notice from time to time by Barclays to the Company, the Company shall immediately pay directly to Barclays additional amounts sufficient to compensate Barclays or such controlling Person for such reduction in rate of return. A statement of Barclays as to any such additional amount or amounts (including calculations thereof in reasonable detail) shall, in the absence of manifest error and if made in good faith, be conclusive and binding on the Company. In determining such amount, Barclays may use any method of averaging and attribution that it (in its good faith discretion) shall deem applicable.

5.6 Change in Lending Office. If, upon the occurrence of any event giving rise to the operation of Sections 5.3, 5.4 or 5.5, Barclays will, if requested by the Company, use reasonable efforts (subject to overall policy considerations of Barclays) to designate another lending office for any Letters of Credit affected by such event, with the object of avoiding the consequences of such event; provided that such designation is made on terms that, in the sole judgment of Barclays, cause Barclays and its lending office(s) to suffer no economic, legal or regulatory disadvantage.
